

EEI COMMUNICATIONS®
The Publishing Think Tank

Courtney Fairchild
Global Services, Inc.
1401 14th Street, NW
3rd Floor
Washington, DC 20005

Dear Courtney:

EEI Communications owes a tremendous debt of gratitude to you and your associates for the service you rendered in 2008.

Navigating the world of government contracting is a challenge even under perfect circumstances. Your counsel and guidance has always been first rate and has directly resulted in EEI winning business.

You really went above and beyond when changes made by the GSA caused significant issues with our contracting vehicles. Save for your persistent pursuit of a resolution through very trying circumstances, the result to EEI would have been nothing short of catastrophic.

Please refer to me any potential client needing reassurance about the value of working with you and your organization. It will be my sincere pleasure to let them know that there is still an organization that consistently exceeds expectations.

All the best,

John H. O'Brien
Vice President
Business development and Marketing
EEI Communications